

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Platinum Media Inc. Acquiring 100% of VS Importing for $50 Million in AETX Tokens

New York, NY – August 19, 2025 – Platinum Media Inc. (Delaware) today announced the transaction pertaining to the acquisition of VS Importing, a breakthrough wine importing and distribution company that owns several proprietary wine brands with exclusive assignable import and distribution rights worldwide.

VS Importing is recognized as an innovator in the global wine industry, transforming how wine is packaged, distributed, and served. By replacing traditional wine-by-the-glass service from bottles with an eco-friendly, cost-effective solution, VS Importing ensures that every glass poured is winery-fresh and delicious.

Under the terms of the transaction, Platinum Media Inc. will acquire 100% ownership of VS Importing in exchange for $50 million in AETX tokens issued to the seller, Kurt Kruse. The acquisition expands Platinum Media’s portfolio into the global beverage sector and strengthens its position at the forefront of tokenized finance and asset-backed transactions.

“This acquisition represents the intersection of tradition and innovation—pairing the timeless appeal of wine with next-generation blockchain financing,” said Shah Mathias, Chairman of Platinum Media Inc. “VS Importing’s eco-friendly model is poised to reshape wine service worldwide, and we are proud to bring this vision into our growing ecosystem.”

This transaction is subject to regulatory approval.
